BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE PRINCE OF PEACE:
Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The PRINCE OF PEACE.
—Isaiah 9: 6.

CRIMINAL DELAY

It is nothing short of criminal to delay the passage of such traffic laws as will insure the safety of those traveling upon foot and by car over our streets.
Hardly a day passes but what a terrible accident is avoided only by the grace of an unseen Providence.

Yesterday afternoon a car came speeding down Main Street through the business section at a rate of speed certainly not less than twenty-five miles an hour and sideswiped a car driven by a lady, which was making the turn at 10th and Main Streets.
It was only a miracle that there was not a serious accident, and the speeder did not even hesitate to see what damage had been done.

It is criminal negligence on the part of the Mayor and Commissioners to defer longer the passage of a traffic ordinance, and this ordinance should require every vehicle entering Main Street in the business section from the cross streets to stop, and the speed limit in the business section should not exceed twelve to fifteen miles per hour.

It will be too late to take action when the life or lives of valuable citizens have been sacrificed. You may not satisfy ever one, but you will be protecting the lives and property of all.

G. O. P. MACHINERY WORK-ED SMOOTHLY

Strictly according to schedule the G. O. P., machinery worked smoothly in the handling of the compensation bill, and those who put it over feel that they have kept their pledge to "big business," and at the same time thrown a "sap" to the soldier voters, but there is another day coming and events will show that the former soldiers are not as gullible as the professional politicians in Washington believe them to be.

As the News and Observer said in an editorial regarding this subject: "The country might not have approved, but would have had respect for open and fair opposition. But they will have condemnation for the policy of making promise to the ear of the soldiers and breaking it to the hope. . . It is dead, cruelly done to death by the hypocritical policy of saying lovingly, "How art thou, my brother?" and using the stiletto for the assassination."

The soldiers have been knifed in the back, but they are not made of the stuff to lay supinely down and submit to such hypocritical treatment and will register their resentment at the polls in November, and thereafter their interests will be in the hands of friends and not in those of soft-mouthed servants of war profiteers who never smelled gunpowder. The Republicans had millions for the favored few, though the passage of the tariff bill bleeding the people of more than three billions of dollars annually—but not a dollar for those who made the safety of the country and world democracy possible.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION BUREAU

"Perhaps It's Here" is the title of an attractive little brochure published by the University Extension Department. It tells of the various activities of the bureau, which was organized to enable the University to go to those who cannot come to it. The bureau works through correspondence, offering fifty courses; lectures and entertainments, short courses and institutes, public discussion, community drama, surveys by experts of commercial and industrial matters, community music, advice on municipal problems, and in many other ways. The people are invited to use the University as their "clearing house in business, social or educational problems." It is a great opportunity for the people. They ought to welcome it. Some of the best educated people never saw inside of a college or university. The delights of culture are open to every one who seeks them with a reasonable degree of diligence.—News and Observer.

SICK SOLDIERS WANT VIC-TROLA RECORDS

The Roanoke Post Auxiliary will ship to the sick soldiers at Oteen Hospital this week a box of Victrola records. Mr. Pratt, Director of the Red Cross at Oteen, asks that records be sent these boys, as they have machines in the different wards, but the limited supply of records give them entertainment for a very son in Scotland Neck help to give diversion to these fellows who are still fighting their part of the war, who are sick and suffering and weary because they went to the front for us!
